

NEW WEBSITE FOR UNITED WAY OF GREATER LORAIN COUNTY

THRIVE! Grantor United Way of Greater Lorain County has a new look for its website (<https://www.uwloraincounty.org/>). The website is designed to be more mobile-friendly.

A key addition to the website is its Diversity and Inclusion page (<https://www.uwloraincounty.org/diversity-and-inclusion>), which reads, in part:

“United Way of Greater Lorain County aspires to be a model of diversity and inclusion. In order to fulfill our mission, we celebrate human differences and nurture an environment where people feel supported, listened to, and able to do their personal best.

It is our intent to demonstrate these goals by having a governing board, staff, and volunteers that reflect the many faces, and walks of life, which proudly make up our community.

Valuing diversity includes respecting and appreciating each person regardless of race, color, religion, gender, national origin, ancestry, disability, age, military status, pregnancy, familial status, genetic information, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression. Inclusion and diversity brings together people with unique individual backgrounds to collectively and more effectively address the issues facing our communities.”
